

Marshall Craver is the Associate Rector of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Mobile, AL., ministering for the past twelve years primarily in the areas of adult spiritual formation, contemplative prayer groups, retreats, and one-on-one spiritual direction. He is a graduate of The Shalem Institute for Spiritual Formation and has served as an adjunct faculty member of Shalem for the past nine years. Marshall has a Certificate in Spiritual Direction from the Jesuits of Spring Hill College and feels deeply called to the ministry of spiritual direction. He is married to Jan Craver who has her certificate in yoga instruction from Kripalu in Lenox, Massachusetts. Marshall and Jan have led numerous retreats in the Diocese of Alabama, Florida, and The Central Gulf Coast on breath prayer and praying with the body. They have three adult children, two grandchildren and a dog named Merlin the Magician. The Cravers enjoy kayaking, sailing, biking, hiking and Gulf Coast seafood!
